Work

AIM Proximity - www.aimproximity.co.nz

01 Jun 10 - 01 Apr 29

My most recent job was at AIM Proximity back in Wellington, New Zealand. I was responsible for the majority of visual design and worked on such high profile clients as Toyota and Education New Zealand. This work ranged from iPad designs, to websites, to banners and touchscreen kiosks.

Sony Music - www.sonymusic.co.uk

05 Oct 09 - 15 Dec 09

My last job in the UK was with Sony Music. My role at Sony was to take the musicians album artwork and turn it into a visual design based upon a Drupal template. After sign-off, I was required to use Drupal to realise the visual design in an online website.

UKTV - www.uktv.co.uk

01 Sept 09 - 01 Oct 09

After doing some travel in Europe, I worked at UKTV for a month, designing the visual look of their intranet. I was also involved in other small visual design jobs, as well as some flash development and prototypes for their channel brands.

Digital People - www.digitalpeopleonline.com

29 Oct 08 - 12 June 09

I spent some time with Digital People in the UK, designing and implementing websites based on the Drupal CMS. This involved start to finish wire-framing and visual design, as well as skinning of the base theme to match the visual design.

NV Interactive - www.nvinteractive.co.nz

14 March 08 - 14 August 08

I worked at NV interactive as a contract designer for 4 months before going overseas. My role predominantly involved designing the visual look of websites for NV's clients. This also involved wire framing and developing the front-end in CSS for the programmers to attach to their CMS and backend.

Get This One

16 July 07 - 28 March 08

I worked at Get This One as a full-time employee, predominantly used as a visual designer. I was involved in creating the look for websites and developing the sites in conjunction with the in-house programmer. I also updated existing websites via CMS, created web banners and web games, screensavers and other web content.

Freelance design

01 February 06 - 01 June 07

I spent a year and a half as a freelancer and contract designer. This involved web design, DVD/ CD-ROM creation, graphic design and 3D.

Profile

I am a 28 year old digital designer who has been living and working in Wellington for the last 14 months, since returning from my OE in the UK.

I have spent the last 6 years working in the digital media industry as a freelancer, contractor and an in-house employee, and am currently seeking new employment.
